Letter of Invitation

The Anti-Corruption & Civil Rights Commission (ACRC) requests the honor of your presence at “2009 APEC Anti-Corruption & Transparency Symposium” on September 16th through 17th at JW Marriott, Seoul.

The Symposium will contribute to enhancing anti-corruption capacity of APEC member economies and organizing anti-corruption technical assistance projects by sharing and discussing technical support experience. Furthermore, it will serve as a good opportunity to bring together APEC members and anti-corruption experts to look for a better way to fight corruption and ensure transparency.

At the Symposium, the heads of anti-corruption bodies from Thailand and Malaysia, a high ranking official from US Office of Government Ethics and officials from international organizations such as the UNDP and the World Bank present a variety of policies on anti-corruption capacity building and actual cases. Bhutan and Indonesia, which worked together with the ACRC for building anti-corruption capacity, are scheduled to talk about their experience.

Once again, the ACRC cordially invites you to “2009 APEC Anti-Corruption & Transparency Symposium” where recent global trends in anti-corruption efforts, transparency, Official Development Assistance (ODA) and related national policies will be addressed.

Chairman, Anti-Corruption &
Civil Rights Commission, Republic of Korea
