What is an APEC publication?

APEC publications are documents intended for public dissemination, including books, research studies, working papers, conference proceedings, and basic information documents such as brochures and newsletters, in electronic or hard copy form.

What is NOT an APEC publication?

Documents that are meant for internal purposes according to APEC’s access policy and not intended for general public dissemination are not APEC publications.
Objectives

- promote a better understanding of the three pillars of APEC’s agenda
- share APEC’s perceptions and experience
- stimulate broad discussion and participation in APEC’s activities
- develop and maintain understanding by the various sectors of APEC’s programs and activities.

Establishing Quality and Standards for APEC Project Publications
Establishing Quality and Standards

Observations

Content-related Trends
- Excessive use of technical language
- Academic language used for headings and subheadings
- Missing or low-quality
- Referring to technical concepts without greater clarification for ordinary readers
- Lack of narrative structure

Design-related Trends
- Lack of design elements which highlight key insights
- Low-quality design and visuals
- Variety of design templates and Word formatting used
Establishing Quality and Standards
APEC Publications Toolkit

- Contains advice and recommendations on how to prepare and develop APEC publications, with best practices and examples.

- Should be used in line with the APEC Publication Guidelines.

APEC Intellectual Property (IP) Policy

APEC is a registered name and emblem under the World Intellectual Property Organization’s Article 6ter.

APEC’s Intellectual Property, not an Economy’s Intellectual Property

The APEC Secretariat is the owner of APEC’s intellectual property, just as it is the owner of other assets.

What Intellectual Property is important to APEC?
1. Trademark
2. Copyright
3. Confidential information
APEC Intellectual Property (IP) Policy
Copyright of APEC Publications

- The APEC Secretariat will hold the copyright for APEC publications produced under APEC projects – this includes both APEC-funded and APEC self-funded projects.

- APEC is to be credited if anyone wants to quote any part of an APEC publication.
APEC Intellectual Property (IP) Policy
Translations

- Member economies have the ability to translate and publish them as separate documents within their own economies, provided that such publication and distribution are non-profit-making.

- Member economies should individually bear the cost of, and otherwise be responsible for, any such translation and distribution.

- Each translation will require a written agreement from the APEC Secretariat. With this agreement, APEC member economies may obtain the right to make a faithful translation, with no omission or addition into a language other than English and to print a pre-arranged number of copies. No abridgments or editing of the text shall be permitted without the prior written agreement of the APEC Secretariat.
APEC Logo Guidelines

As a general principle, the APEC logo and acronym shall be used in a manner befitting the status and goals of APEC and shall take into account the sensitivities of APEC member economies.

The APEC Secretariat is vested with the ownership of the APEC logo and acronym and any intellectual property rights relating to the APEC logo and acronym.

It is the sole controlling authority for the use and licensing of the APEC logo and acronym and/or any intellectual property rights relating to the APEC logo and acronym.
The APEC Logo can be used in APEC events. ‘APEC events’ are defined as events/activities done by:

- APEC-funded projects
- self-funded projects/events endorsed by an APEC group
This Policy applies only when:

1. the APEC Secretariat will receive the sponsorship, and
2. a project funded by APEC receives sponsorship

In both cases, the APEC Secretariat will sign the Sponsorship Agreement, or Sponsorship Letter with the Sponsor.
Dissemination of APEC Project Publications
APEC publications database is the online repository of reports, brochures, proceedings, and manuals produced under APEC projects; publications by members; and publications produced by the APEC Secretariat for wider public dissemination.
Social Media

- Social media accounts outside the APEC Secretariat: To avoid confusion with official APEC social media channels, the APEC logo should not be used as a profile photo. Instead, use a photo that is reflective of the project and/or initiative.

- Do not insert the APEC working group, centre, study centre and/or any project/initiative name or modify the APEC logo on the profile photo for any reason.

- APEC’s social media guidelines provides comprehensive information on channels created in APEC’s name.
